Judging Method

The Women of Drummer contest will consist of two days of competition. Using a straight scoring system, a panel of judges shall score each contestant based on the following categories and point allocations:

1) MEET AND GREET: maximum 30 points per judge

- Each contestant will meet and greet individuals throughout the event and will be judged on their ability to engage with others in a friendly manner, ability to articulate, and demonstrate a sense of comradery and fun. The creativity, resourcefulness, and contents of the auction basket accounts for 5 of the 30 points in this category.

2) INTERVIEW: maximum 60 points per judge

- Each contestant will meet with the judging panel offstage prior to the contest to answer the judges' questions about the contestant's interest in leather, knowledge of the Movement, play style, and willingness and ability to represent the title. The interviews will be closed to the public.

3) VIDEO SUBMISSION: maximum 20 points per judge

- Each contestant will submit a 3-4 minute video of themselves by August 25th, 2020 that will represent "What the Women of Drummer movement means to me." This video may or may not be released to the public before the contest weekend but will appear on our video channel after the competition. Please be purposeful in choosing the background, your presentation, creativity and your words.

4) BLOG SUBMISSION: maximum 20 points per judge

- Each contest will submit, as part of their application, a 5 paragraph blog on one of the following topics: (1) women's energy and play, (2) badass leatherwomen, (3) raising up our sisters, or (4) importance of gay/queer, self-identified women working together. This blog may or may not be released to the public before the contest weekend but will appear on our blog site after the competition. If applicable, please be sure any sources used are cited appropriately.

5) PLAY: maximum 30 points per judge

- Each contestant will engage in BDSM play in a dungeon type setting which will be viewed by contest participants, judges and the audience. The type of play will be determined by the contestant and will be confined to what is legally permissible and logistically possible in the space. Contestants will provide their own top or bottom for their play scene and will need to provide necessary equipment outside the realm of traditional equipment that will be available. Contestants are asked to be imaginative about how to represent their play. Our seasoned judging panel will be looking for the fierceness of play, the energy exchange and authenticity of play. One's level of experience and type of play is NOT judged. THIS IS NOT A FANTASY SCENE, THIS IS PLAY.

6) HOT WEAR: maximum 20 points per judge

- Each contestant shall appear onstage in attire which best represents their own "hotness". Judges will look at image, comfort, and charisma.

7) ON-STAGE QUESTION: maximum 20 points per judge

- Each contestant shall appear on stage and answer question(s) from the judges. Contestants will be asked one or more on-stage question(s) prepared by the judging panel that relates to their play scene the day before. Responses should not exceed 2 -3 minutes each so that there is time for follow-up questions.

Time restrictions will be strictly enforced for all categories. Exceeding time restrictions may result in a possible 1-10 point penalty for that category to the contestant's score. Time restrictions and allocation of points may be modified if the head judge perceives the need to do so.

A winner and first runner-up shall be selected for the Woman of Drummer title. In the event of any tie or dispute regarding the tallying of a contest, the Women of Drummer Event Contest Producers will be consulted along with the Women of Drummer Owner and judges to make a final determination.

In addition to the winner and runner-up, a Spirit Award will be presented to the most congenial contestant, selected by an anonymous poll of the contestants and Den Staff. The Tally master will tally the ballots.

Additional Information Notice:

FRATERNIZATION WITH JUDGES and/or WOD STAFF:

Women of Drummer contestants shall be prohibited from having private meetings or engaging in sexual activity or scene play with the judges and/or Women of Drummer staff during the competition and prior to the announcement of the results. Any behavior that might create even the appearance of bias will be brought to the attention of the Contest manager who will decide if the disqualification of the judge, staff and/or contestant is warranted.
